NEW YORK COMPLAINS OF THEATRICAL SLUMP

"S. R. O." Sign Goes to Junk Heap and 3,000 Actors Are Reported "at Liberty." [By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.-The national economy wave that has on the downward trend in many industries, now has struck the theater, and the "S. R. O." sign a fixture in most theaters since the armistice—has been relegated to the heap of unused "props," along with the scenery and stage effects of a growing list of failures, theatrical producers said today.

The end of the unprecedented boom in the theater appears to have set in," said Sam H. Harris, president of the Broducing Managers' Associa-

Of forty-four attractions now playfailures is reported to be considerably in excess of those of last year.

Theepians-were "at liberty," and his support of Gevernor Cox. one producer estimated the produces' losses in recent weeks at $1.- WILL MAKE IT RAIN

Closer spending on the part of the public, together with increased rail-road rates which make the transportation of road companies more expensive, were given as the principal cause of theatrical slump.

was informed that unless he revealed its whereabouts he would be arrested.

"If I knew I would not tell you," he is reported to have replied. Consequently he was arrested.

Two other prisoners from Ballylanders, Michael O'Reilly and Christopher Upton, were arrested of July 16 when shots were exchanged there between the police and volunteers.

Sean Hennessy, one of the hunger strikers who is stated to be suffering severely, was attending an irish coliege at Ballingeary a month ago when a motor lorry was held up there and burned after its soldier occupants had been disarmed.

Michael Burke, of Folkstown, Thurles, was arrested in connection with a raid there, told Deputy Mayor O'Callahan that he suffered severely from headaches, which he attributed to a beating by an officer with his fists and a rifle after his arrest.

Another young hunger-striking prisoner, John Power, aged 19, of Cashel. Tipperary, was arrested at the village of Rossegreen, as a suspected Irish republican soldier as was also Joseph Kenny, of Grenagh, County Cork.

Kenny lived many years in Montana. He has seven children, the last being born a few days ago. Another hunger-striker, Joseph Murphy, is a Cork lad, who was arrested in connection with a raid on his house, at which the police are reported to have found a part of a bomb and an incriminating document.
